DEPARTMENT OF LIBRARY & INFORMATION SCIENCE
PANJAB UNIVERSITY, CHANDIGARH

Report of Feedback collected (2019-2020)

The department collected the structured feedback as per the format provided by the University from the students and it was found that the students are overall satisfied with the course contents, and teaching techniques. The department installed LED Projector and interactive board which enhanced the quality of teaching and learning thereby making the students happy. Moreover, a proposal was sent to the authorities for budgetary provision for purchase of smart television for teaching & learning as one of the old projector is not working properly.

On the basis of the last year's feedback from the faculty, the department procured the technical tools as per the requirement of the updated curriculum. Moreover, the newly designed syllabi was got approved from the Board of Studies.

The Alumni of the department during their occasional visits were happy to see the department growing on academic front. On the basis of the feedback from the alumni, the first alumni meet was organised with grand success.

Report/Analysis of the Feedback Collected (2019-2020)

Student Feedback

In the pursuit of providing the best education to the students and to understand their concerns, students were asked for feedbacks. After thorough analysis of their feedback, it was found that most of the students were satisfied with their course, classes and facilities. Students brought forth some issues regarding time table, the fact that back to back classes become hectic and tiring for them. Keeping in view this issue, department started exclusive meetings to set up the time tables with special lectures/presentations in between classes to make their learning and classes more interesting.

Faculty feedback

The faculty feedback summarises the collective effort of students scholars and the faculty itself to cultivate academic excellence, and new ideas to ground philosophical education. Understanding contemporary trends can provide important insights to help retain interest and shed light on how the department of philosophy is fulfilling its mission to educate and innovate.

Alumni feedback

The alumni of the department intermittently visited the department and showed their interest in the development of future practices and initiatives aimed to advance scholastic activities.

Parents' Feedback

The Department Conducted a feedback collection activity whereby the feedback of the parents of students, Selected Randomly, through online mode and as per the guidelines provided thereof. On analysing the results of the said feedback collection it was interesting to note that: Most of the parents are satisfied by the decision of their ward to adopt the current course of study. They found a noticeable change in the behaviour of their ward which seemed more responsible as compared to earlier one. The wards interest in day-to-day decisions of their family matters has increased as per them. They value their wards suggestions and found that the student is often trying to apply the lessons learnt during the course of teaching during the occasional arguments and discussions in family events.

The major suggestion offered was to link the course to the future job prospectives of their ward. Some parents suggested inviting parents to the students' presentation sessions held in the department.

Feedback of Students

The students suggestions regarding the choice of research topics were included in the list, which also catered to their interest areas. The pattern of undertaking a research topic was also remodelled to match the inter-department competitive atmosphere. Given the chnaging methods of teaching, various visual aids were made a part of the classroom teaching. The frameworks of the assignments were edited and modified according to the need of the course and the time of each semester. The students were introduced to presentation skills and soft skills, to help them boost their skills.

Feedback of Teachers

The challenges faced in mentoring various issues were discussed to chalk out a common approach. The suggestions given by the faculty regarding the mentorship were incorporated. The steps to be taken to tackle the students' indiscipline were drafted, in which the students were to be assigned responsibilty roles.

Feedback of Employers

Feedback from employers stressed the need to encourage inter-department activities and competitions. The inputs regarding the implementation of the discipline of classrooms and labs were taken into consideration.

Feedback of Alumni

The members of the alumni suggested about interactive sessions with students, so that they have the opportunity of knowing about the experiences of the designers and entrepreneurs. The students gained knowledge about the mistakes that can be avoided and learned from before entering their professional domains. Some suggestions regarding the changes required in the pattern of teaching were adopted. The theoretical learning was matched with practical learning of all subjects to make the students more confident.

Feedback of Parents

Parents welcomed the idea of new teaching methods being adopted in classroom teaching. A regular update to the parents was made about their ward's attendance, performance and behaviour, who demanded that they should be informed about the above. The course objectives were shared with the parents to help them understand the credibility of the course.
